-On Sunday evening, May 10th, Mr. Frank Theis and Miss Nellie Parrish, both of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. F. R. Crooks at the M. E. parsonage, West Side. The happy eyent first became known to the friends and relatives of the young couple three weeks after it occurred, and was a great surprise, having been a well kept secret during that time. Mr. Theis is a valued employe of the Leader office, but we confess our ignorance of the wedding until Sunday evening. Both bride and groom are well known and deservedly popular throughout a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, and although we can scarcely forgive Mr. Theis for the trick played upon us, the leader nevertheless joins heartly in the shower of congratulations with best wishes that the newly wedded pair may enjoy a long life of prosperity and

MUNDHENK,

The Star of the Diamond Race Meet.

Squire B. E. Guyton. There was no Columbus, Wheeling and Marietta Riders Successful.

> Briant, of Parkersburg. Won the Novice and Ogle the County Championsnip.
> Two Thousand People in Attendance

The Diamond Race Meet held at the Fair Grounds Saturday under the auspices of the Lobdell Cycling Club was the most successful ever given in the the track in excellent condition. The crowd of spectators, present numbered over 2000 and unanimonsly voted the seen on the Marietta track. The star rider of the meet was Fred Mundhenk, of Columbus, who wou four straight events grandly and carried home with him $150 worth of unset diamonds. His chief opponent was Harry Ogle, of this city, who pushed the Columbus man in for a fast finish in every event. Marietta people missed the red head of Bennie Stoehr, who has been the local champion for the past two years, but Ogle defended the home cause manfully and made a brilliant showing. He was outclassed by Mundhenk, who recently lowered the Intercollegiate twomile record and is coming out as one of the fastest men in the State.

The novice was won easily by Charles Briant, of Parkersburg, C. Bens, Columbus, Walter Knox, Marietta, and Frank Morris, finishing second, third and fourth respectively. Time 2:31.

The county championship was won by Harry Ogle in 2:41, Walter Knox taking second, E. R. Koerner third and Charles Darrow fourth. This being Ogle's second winning of this race he is entitled to ownership of the champthe preparation of sketches and other ionship cup. Darrow's rear tire burstmatters of interest in connection with ed in the final spurt and wound itself up in the hub, but he was not thrown.

There being 18 starters in the third event, the half mile opeu, it was run in two heats and a final, Mundhenk, Ogle, Geo. Foster, of Wheeling, and Wm. meeting of the Grand Lodge, Knights present importance, and likewise the Bay, Ironton, finishing in the order future development of the city, will named. Ogle won the first heat in oblige the public generally by giving 1:1134 and Mundhenk took the second in 1:16. The time for the final was 1:11. In the second heat Bayand columns. The Marietta Industrial edi- Fletcher, of Columbus, collided, and the latter was seriously bruised. The mile open was paced by a tandem and won by Mundhenk, with Hedges, of Columbus, Ogle and Arthur Foster finishing in the order named.

The half mile flying start was won in 1:13, Mundhenk, Ogle, Arthur Foster and Hedges taking places as

In the mile invitation also the Columbus cyclone had things all his own way, taking first easily in 2:24. Hedges finished second and Zinsmeister, of Zanesville, third.

The five mile handicap prizes were taken by George Foster, John Hedges, Zanesville, respectfully. Time 14:20. E. C. Johnson, the scratch man, caught the bunch and made a fine sprint for the lead, but was unable to hold out

The races throughout were characterized by gentlemanly conduct of the contestants and good honest riding. Financially, the Cycling Club is a neat sum ahead.
